Market Recovers From Pressure and Starts on Upward Course.

THE EFFECT ON SPECULATION

Served to Restore Confidence in , Quarters Where Some Apprehension Existed.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, July 18.—Very large selling to take profits occurred to day, but the stock market showed a good digestive and recovered from the pressur and started on a new upward course, This result undoubtedly had an important reassuring effect upon speculative sentiof a reaction even in quarters where great confidence in the strength of the market The extent and the duration of rise to-day. The most obvious rofit-tak-ing was conducted in the Pacifics, Bt. Paul and United States Steel preferred. except United States Steel pr was over. The effect was to encourage quite easily through 120 was steel preferred in the final hour caused a material reaction in the market, carrying the last two stocks a point below last

COTTON MARKETS.

NEW YORK, July 18.—The cotton market opened weak practically on the near positions, which were 22628 points Jower under scattering iliquidation of long accounts, promoted by the weaker cables, while the later positions must be a sense of the weaker cables, while the later positions must be a sense of the weaker over the contractor of the weaker over Sunday and the favorable forecast. Trading at first was moderately active, but while sentiment around the ring seemed to have, a bearist swarge on the theory that the buil deal in Livertool had culminated, and that arrivals of new crop cotton in August would help to relieve the searcity of old crop supplies local traders seemed unwilling to sellifor suyling but moderate laws, sallied by buy through a certain large wire house with Southwestern connections. The market became less active as prices worked back to Saturday's close, and in the afternoon was very quiet, but shout steady, closing quiet, but steady, at a decline of 18 points to has advance of 2 points, and being only a point'or so down from the best of the tions in the new tending to promise co-form in the market of the tions in the new tending to promise or of the items in the new tending to promise or of the items in the new tending to promise or of the items in the new tending to promise or of the items in the new tending to promise or of the items in the new tending to promise or of the items in the new tending to promise or of the items in the new tending to promise or of the items in the new tending to promise or of the items in the new tending to promise or of the items in the new tending to promise or of the items in the new tending to promise or of the items in the new tending to promise or of the items in the new tending to promise or of the items in the new tending to promise or of the items in the new tending to the same date last year.

MAKES OFFER OF COMPROMISE

Action Deferred Yesterday on Latest Proposition of Sully & Co.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, July 18.—D. J. Sully and Company and Daniel J. Sully, individually, to-day made formal offers of compromise at a meeting of their creditors, but final action was deferred until Wednesday, as it was not shown that the beankrupts have funds sufficient to make good the compromise offer of forty percent, cash and ten percent, in inject day notes. David Miller, the trustee, at the invitation of the referee, announced that he has $1,000,000 in cash on hand and $200,000 in good paper. He said he would need about $300,000 more to make good the forty per cent, offer. Following this almouncement it was decided that no definite action could be taken intil Mr. Sully made some absolute announcement of the time at which he will be prepared to deposit the needed $300,000, subject to the order of the court on the report of the trustee. The meeting was then adjourned until Wednesday next.
